Elusive Honey

2000 dkb M Elusive Quality – Honey Sipper (Drone)

Elusive Honey was foaled in Kentucky on April 27, 2000. She raced at ages three and four, with all but two of her starts in her home state. Owned by Dana and David Garner, and trained by Bill Mott for most of her career, she won at Ellis Park, Churchill Downs and Gulfstream Park against allowance competition. She earned a lifetime $111,165 in 14 starts including 3 firsts, 4 seconds and 3 thirds. As a broodmare she produced seven foals to prestigious stallions such as Tale of the Cat, Johannesburg and Harlan's Holiday. All seven were runners and earners, but by 2017 reproductive issues had ended her breeding career. One evening while visiting Little Silver Charm, Dr. Bryan Waldrige, Elusive Honey's veterinarian and ours, informed us of this sweet girl's need for a home. Since June 2017 Old Friends has been fortunate to have this lovely, peaceable, and somewhat self-effacing, mare among its main farm's residents.
